

True Just One Table

Collaboration impregnation arose some time ago
Working so hard always are secluded foundations
The real disabled make stable a true just one table
Although so small, the one table has character
It can speak
It can shout
It works to rout

But the outs simply struggle to be heard by the neutral
We sit in a safari where glances fixate on the desert
They discern lions who roar and giraffes with reach
Will they notice one small table for long?

Yet, if our foundations are filled firm let us maintain our main base
Grow legs
Gain height
Grab attention
Frame fight

The great sight will overcome what others only expect to observe
As we display justly exposures using growth and unforeseen talents for all

Written by Joe Stevenson, April 2020